

MAISON LÉOPOLD CROIZET

COGNAC LÉOPOLD CROIZET

Extra

Controlled Cognac Fins Bois appellation

40 % vol. / 70 cl

This Extra Cognac is rich and complex. Its rancio evokes candied fruit and chocolate. The fresh, floral palate reveals honeysuckle and jasmine before a nutmeg and cinnamon finish.

Tasting notes

Aromatic markers

|                                                                                     |               |                                                                                     |         |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
|  | Honeysuckle   |  | Jasmine |
|  | Cinnamon      |  | Nutmeg  |
|  | Chocolate     |                                                                                     |         |
|  | Candied fruit |                                                                                     |         |

Color

Golden / orange amber.

Nose

Rich and complex, revealing candied and dried fruit with early rancio notes.

Palate

Excellent roundness. Floral jasmine and honeysuckle, with marked oak softened by long ageing.

Finish

Spiced, marked by walnut and dried fruit.